After 15 years of success, why now?

Neighborhood News

Director Vincent Riveroll

I well remember the transformation of Gompers from a low-performing school...The students were in control...They would throw their chairs and desks out the window. You

Parents told stories of their children graduating from Gompers and becoming the first in their families to attend college. This was a renaissance in the Southeast.

I believe Riveroll deserves a contract and his on-loan agreements will help this happen. Again, re-instituting Riveroll's contract is not a settled issue. There are still many people who want to get it right.

Cecil Steppe:

Why is our superintendent revoking these rights? Why now?

The board voted 5-0 to reinstate on-loan agreements. Numerous staff sent letters to the board expressing support, while several teachers signed a petition to support reinstating the on-loan agreements. The board and staff have a mandate to do the right thing by our employees.

Today I want to explain why the board made this decision. We are not unaware that you have been found guilty of fraud, criminal conduct and abuse of power. You have been removed from your position on the Board of Education and you are under investigation by the State Attorney General. We see you as a threat.

Ending on-loan agreements ensures all Gompers workers are treated fairly. Ending this agreement could result in a lawsuit. As I have said before, you can't be an employee of a public school and make them good for life. The consensus was these founders are vital to the school's well-being.

It didn't matter to the union leaders that 86% of teachers wanted it. I respect someone's personal beliefs, but they have a responsibility to the students.

We made a decision to reinstate the on-loan agreements. The board consists of five members with the authority to make decisions. The board members were elected by the people of San Diego. The board is not answerable to you, nor any union. The board is answerable to the people of San Diego. The board consists of five members who have the authority to make decisions.

According to the union, teacher salary and benefits... Would any teacher, administrator or classified employee want to work for a union that would throw their chairs and desks out the window.

It is unfair to call a union that is working with four of their founding staff members with the San Diego Unified school board to restore on-loan agreements the district made with the San Diego Unified school board to restore on-loan agreements.

We have many detractors, is joining the Biden team in DC. That's a perfect example of someone being "kicked upstairs." Just what has she done, other than survive the right thing by your own employees. The board voted 5-0 to reinstate on-loan agreements for the school, as Joe Deegan reported for the Neighborhood News.

Here's something you might be interested in. This is about school board president Richard Barrera who as you point out has many detractors, is joining the Biden team in DC. That's a perfect example of someone being "kicked upstairs." Just what has she done, other than survive the right thing by your own employees.

The board consists of five members with the authority to make decisions. The board members were elected by the people of San Diego. The board is not answerable to you, nor any union. The board is answerable to the people of San Diego. The board consists of five members who have the authority to make decisions.

Ending on-loan agreements ensures all Gompers workers are treated fairly. Ending this agreement could result in a lawsuit. As I have said before, you can't be an employee of a public school and make them good for life. The consensus was these founders are vital to the school's well-being.

It didn't matter to the union leaders that 86% of teachers wanted it. I respect someone's personal beliefs, but they have a responsibility to the students.

We made a decision to reinstate the on-loan agreements. The board consists of five members with the authority to make decisions. The board members were elected by the people of San Diego. The board is not answerable to you, nor any union. The board is answerable to the people of San Diego. The board consists of five members who have the authority to make decisions.

According to the union, teacher salary and benefits... Would any teacher, administrator or classified employee want to work for a union that would throw their chairs and desks out the window.

It is unfair to call a union that is working with four of their founding staff members with the San Diego Unified school board to restore on-loan agreements the district made with the San Diego Unified school board to restore on-loan agreements.

We have many detractors, is joining the Biden team in DC. That's a perfect example of someone being "kicked upstairs." Just what has she done, other than survive the right thing by your own employees. The board voted 5-0 to reinstate on-loan agreements for the school, as Joe Deegan reported for the Neighborhood News.

Here's something you might be interested in. This is about school board president Richard Barrera who as you point out has many detractors, is joining the Biden team in DC. That's a perfect example of someone being "kicked upstairs." Just what has she done, other than survive the right thing by your own employees.